About AFSC

The Association of Feng Shui Consultants is an independent, non-profit organisation founded in 2005, run on a voluntary basis by an executive committee elected from the membership. Our aim is to inform and educate the public about Feng Shui and to provide a list of consultants for their convenience.

AFSC members are qualified Feng Shui professionals committed to the Association's Code of Ethics. AFSC membership denotes a commitment to professionalism and has been developed to maintain, support, educate and share the passion for Feng Shui.

Our Mission

- Promote the integrity and benefits of Feng Shui to the public
- Promote continuing education for our Consultants & the public
- Promote, develop and monitor competence in the practice of Feng Shui
- Develop relationships with professional training institutions
- Set professional standards for Feng Shui in Australia
- Liaise with the public who wish to learn more about Feng Shui

Professional Member Benefits

Professional Member benefits include a photo listing on the AFSC website which experiences excellent exposure on major search engines, access to forum discussions through an online member's only site; discounted insurance; access and input to quarterly newsletters; details of professional Training Institutions in addition to educational and networking opportunities during the year.
